THREE ENGINES HIT AUTOMOBILE

Walter Gartin's Machine is Shoved
Off C. H. & D. Track and Three
Occupants Painfully Hurt.

ACCIDENT IN MAIN STREET

Will Carter, Louis Mauzy, Lawrence
Clark and Owner Saved From Death When Auto Stays Upright.

Walter Gartin, Louis Mauzy, Lawrence Clark and Will Carter had a close call from death Sunday night about 10:30 o'clock when the Gartin auto in which they were riding was struck by a C. H. & D. engine, or rather 3 engines coupled together at Main street crossing. The accident was remarkable in many respects. All four were more or less bruised, but their injuries are not serious. Of the four Louis Mauzy was injured the most painfully.

The Gartin machine was traveling north in Main street and the three engines were backing towards the water tank east of the city. Gartin, who was driving the machine, stated today that he failed to see any lights and did not have any warning of the approaching engines.

The auto was struck near the front end and pushed from the track. The machine was thrown into Fourth street and finally stopped near the lawn at the Frank Capp home. The auto was badly damaged, one wheel being smashed; the lights broken off and the hood badly dented.

The three engines were stopped near Perkins street crossing. One of the auto lamps was jammed in the wheels of the tender of the engine that struck the auto and it was necessary for the train to move forward before it could be taken out. The occupants of the auto were given a big scare. The crash was heard for several blocks and hundreds viewed the wreck auto last night and this morning.

It was considered remarkable that the three heavy engines just pushed the auto to one side. The machine did not turn over, which probably accounts for the fact that the occupants were not injured to any great extent. Mr. Mauzy suffered greatly from a blow in the abdomen, but it is not believed he is hurt internally.

Mr. Gartin stated today that following the accident he inspected the first engine of the three and found no light of any kind displayed. The engines were not traveling at a high rate of speed, it was stated.

WANTS IT LAW ABIDING

Ralston Promises to See What Can be Done at Muncie.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 13.—Governor Ralston held a second conference with Thomas K. Patterson concerning conditions at Muncie and informed the man from Muncie that he would take up with Attorney General Stotsenburg the question of whether a representative of the attorney general can be lawfully assigned to assist at the impeachment trial of Mayor Bunch of Muncie.

Governor Ralston repeated that he wished to see Muncie a law abiding city. Muncie is "dry" and violating the liquor laws are the ones referred to.

Deputy Sheriff Sullivan took Floyd Kriner to the Julia Ward school at Plymouth today. The boy was sentenced to the school in juvenile court Saturday.

WILL MEET WEDNESDAY

County Board Will Make Some Deficiency Appropriations.

The county council will meet Wednesday in special session to make a few deficiency appropriations and to renew some bridge appropriations. There is a shortage in several funds that requires an extra appropriation. Several bridge contracts were awarded and appropriations were made to cover the expense of building. The bridges were not constructed this year and in order to complete the work next year the money must again be appropriated.

THOUGHTS OF XMAS COME WITH SNOW

This Should Arouse Good Fellows
Still Out of League Because
There is Much to do.

WARDS ARE TAKEN TODAY

Two crisp one dollar bills contributed and four names taken off the list constituted the activity within the ranks of the Goodfellows League today. Mrs. Meta Smith gave two dollars to the League to be spent on the unfortunate little folks and Miss Helen Scudder's class of girls of St. Paul's M. E. church took the names of four children, all in one family, and will see that they are not disappointed on Christmas morning.

The going is still slow for the League, however. The snowfall of last night and today should turn thoughts of Good Fellows to Christmas. It is not improbable that their first thought would be of the little unfortunates who are without hope unless the Good Fellows come to their rescue. There are over a hundred names on the list yet and many more to be added in the next two or three days. Good Fellows who want to help should make their wants known now. Don't delay.

RUNS INTO CURB TO AVOID "HEAD ON"

Joe Lakin Breaks Rear Wheel on
Automobile to Prevent Striking
Clen Miller's Machine.

SLIPPERY STREET BLAMED

In trying to avoid hitting the machine driven by Clen (Dusty) Miller, Joe Lakin crashed into the curbing and the right rear wheel of his auto was torn off. The accident occurred this morning at the intersection of Second and Perkins streets.

Lakin was driving east in Second street and Miller was coming south in Perkins streets. The machines hit head on, but it was a glancing blow and Lakin pulled to the right to prevent any damage. The slippery condition of the street caused the machine to crash into a pole and the rear wheel gave way. The Miller machine was not damaged.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Rush council number 41, R. & S. M. will hold their regular stated meeting tonight. The annual election of officers will take place followed by degree work. Companions are requested to be present.

COUNTY CLUB IS ORGANIZED HERE

Republicans Will be United in Compact Body by Organization at Meeting Saturday

DR. J. C. SEXTON PRESIDENT

Plans Formulated to Run Special I. & C. Cars to Indianapolis For Love Feast Dec. 30.

A county Republican club was organized at the meeting of the Republican precinct committeemen at the court house assembly room Saturday afternoon and plans were formulated to send a big delegation from this county to the Republican state-wide love feast at Indianapolis Thursday, December 30.

Dr. J. C. Sexton was elected president and Walter Hubbard secretary of the Republican club. The rest of the organization will be perfected by the precinct committeemen. They will each select a member of the membership committee and a vice-president for their precinct.

Present plans call for a crowd of several hundred Republicans to go to Indianapolis for the state love feast, which is expected to be the biggest thing the state committee has done in preparation for the 1916 campaign.

There will be delegations from every county in the state. In view of the fact that Rush county has the leading candidate for United States senator, Republican leaders feel that this county should make a good showing. Special cars will be run on the I. & C. traction line and the round trip tickets good going on the specials will sell for one dollar each. The tickets will be good returning on any regular car for three days. Tickets may be purchased from the precinct committeemen. Persons who plan to go are urged to buy their interurban tickets at once so that it may be determined as early as possible how many special cars will be needed. Bands will accompany the local delegation.

President J. C. Sexton urges that every man from eighteen years up see his precinct committeeman at once and place his name on the membership blank. There are no dues, no initiation fee and no assessments in connection with the new club. Membership blanks are in the hands of the committeemen. Everyone interested in what the club stands for is requested to join immediately.

Headquarters for the club will be opened within a few days—by the first of next year at any rate—in the rooms over Callaghan company's store, the same place that was used by the county central committee in the last campaign.

The precinct committeemen will hold another meeting Saturday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock.

The membership blank which each member of the club is asked to sign consists of the following:

We, the undersigned, desire to become members of the Rush County Republican club. We believe in the principles of the Republican party and hereby agree to give our best efforts for its success in 1916.

AGREE ON TROOP MOVEMENT.

Salonika, Dec. 13.—A satisfactory agreement was reached today by the Anglo-French and the Greek military authorities. It calls for the free movement of the expeditionary forces between Salonika and the Greek frontier, the zone through which the allies are retreating.

Robert Whalen, who has been ill with pneumonia, was in a critical condition today. He is at the home of his parents in Jersey City.

AUTO MISHAP IS BASIS OF SUIT

John W. Bever of Noble Township Seeks $300 Damages From I. & C. Traction Company.

NEGLIGENCE IS ALLEGED

Case Starts Today, Bever Testifying That Auto, Formerly Worth $1,000, Would Bring Only $150.

The wreck of an automobile by an Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction car in Connersville July 3, 1915, is the basis of a damage suit starting in circuit court this morning. The plaintiff is John W. Bever of Noble township and he demands damages of the traction company in the sum of $300.

Negligence on the part of the defendant is alleged in the complaint. Bever was the first witness to testify. At the time of the accident the auto was driven by his son, Arthur Bever. Bever stated that, together with his family, he had gone to Connersville to trade on the evening of the accident and that his son took the machine in order to take his "girl" home. It was while on this mission that the accident occurred.

At the time of the accident Arthur Bever was accompanied by Henry Craig and the Misses Mildred Dawson and Helen Storer. John stated that the machine before the accident was worth $1,000 and following the accident was so badly damaged as to be worth only $150. The accident occurred at the intersection of Walnut and Tenth streets, Connersville.

Not much difficulty was experienced in obtaining a jury. The jury is as follows: Frank Hudelson, Ora E. Hite, Arthur George, George W. Thomas, E. A. Kirkpatrick, Herschel E. Daubenspeck, J. T. Bennett, Oliver Siler, Samuel H. Trabue, J. E. Farthing and James Gatewood. Bever is represented by C. W. Duncan and the traction company by Kiplinger and Smith of this city and W. A. Kittenger of Anderson. Owing to the cold weather affecting the court room, court was held today in the juvenile room.

John Gray took an appeal to the appellate court in the case brought against him by Otis Gray. Judge Sparks placed the appeal bond at $750 and George Gray was accepted as surety. Sixty days were given in which to file a bill of exceptions.

The case of the Hoosier Fence company against Jacob A. Parrish, on a note demanding $150, was dismissed this morning by the plaintiff and the costs paid.

WHAT WILL GERMANY SAY?

Its Attitude Toward Austria in Ancona Case Puzzling.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Dec. 13.—How Germany will advise Austria to answer the Ancona note, made public today—the sharpest communication the United States has sent to a belligerent—was the big question facing official Washington today.

On the answer depends whether a long diplomatic negotiations must be endured and whether Austria will yield at all.

The twelfth annual Knights of Columbus banquet will be held tonight at the K. of C. lodge rooms in West Second street. Today is the anniversary of the establishment of the lodge in this city. A. H. Schrieft will act as toastmaster and an interesting program has been arranged as follows:

"We're Here Because We're Here"—William E. Tuite, Indianapolis.

"A Knight—A Witness For Christ"—The Rev. J. B. Delaney, Columbus, Ind.

"Looking Backwards"—F. T. Loftus.

"Fraternity"—Samuel L. Trabue.

Musie will be furnished by Mrs. Grace Gerber of Richmond and Miss Notie Moran of this city.

FOUND DEAD TODAY SITTING IN CHAIR

Newton Paxton, Age 60 Years, Expires Suddenly While in Small Tenant House.

IN USUAL HEALTH SUNDAY

Newton Paxton, sixty years old, was found dead sitting in a chair this morning at his tenant house on the Mrs. Sallie Davis farm, in Center township, near Mays. The discovery was made by Will Davis, who happened to go to the house. Mr. Paxton was a resident of Mays most of his life and had been working at the Davis farm for the past two weeks. The coroner was called to investigate and it is believed that death was due to heart disease. The body was found at ten o'clock this morning.

Mr. Paxton was up and around as usual yesterday, and appeared to be in his usual health. It is believed that he died this morning as indications pointed to this. He is survived by one son and two sisters, Mrs. Albert Bowles and Jefferson Kirkpatrick and one brother, John Paxton. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

CALLS ON RULERS TO DECLARE TRUCE

Henry Ford, by Wireless, Asks European Heads to Get Out of the Trenches by Christmas

URGES AN ARMISTICE NOW

(By United Press.)

New York, Dec. 13.—Henry Ford today by wireless called upon rulers of warring European nations to declare an immediate truce and to begin peace negotiations at once.

The message went to every ruler of Europe and was as follows:

"We do earnestly entreat you and the rulers of all other European nations to declare an immediate truce," Ford urged. "Let the armies stand where they are. Then let the negotiations proceed so that soldiers may be delivered from another bitter winter in the trenches and sent back to their labors and their firesides."

—A. W. Rigsbee and L. H. Macy transacted business here this morning. Arlington visited here today.

MAY HAVE TO GO BEFORE PEOPLE

Possibility of Tom Taggart Having to be Elected National Committeemen, it is Believed.

McCOMBS ORDER APPLIED

National Chairman's Call is For Primaries to Choose Committeemen and Delegates.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 13.—Thomas Taggart, if he is to succeed himself as Democratic national committeeman from Indiana, may be forced to go before the people as a primary election candidate. Taggart was elected four years ago by the state committee.

Various authorities here gave the above local application here today to the order of National Chairman McCombs in his call for the Democratic national convention at St. Louis.

McCombs called for primaries to elect delegates to the national convention and national committeemen.

Bryan Democrats here today recalled Bryan's fight for a "dry" national committeeman in Iowa and predicted that he might decide Taggart not "dry" enough and might oppose Taggart at such a primary as McCombs ordered.

Attorney General Stotsenburg today said that Indiana's direct primary law provides that delegates to the national convention shall be elected by the state convention and that no order by national committee chairman could displace it. He was not sure, however, whether the state committee would have to call a special primary to elect a national committeeman.

FOR PERPETRATING FRAUD

L. Lucian Roberts Arrested Today For Making False Loans.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 13.—L. Lucian Roberts of Denver, Colo., who was arrested by a deputy United States marshal in Fort Wayne was placed in jail here today to be held until he is returned to Pueblo, Colo., for trial on the charge of using the mails to defraud. Roberts is said to be a representative of the American Canadian Securities company of Denver. It is charged that he offered loans to farmers and that when ten per cent of the loan had been collected in advance as security he disappeared. He was trailed by postal inspectors to Fort Wayne.

FINED BY SQUIRE.

The theft of a dollar necktie cost John Ricker $1 and costs in Squire Kratzer's court Sunday. The tie was taken from the O. P. C. H. clothing store and the charge against Ricker was filed by Jack Knecht, one of the owners of the store. It was understood that some other things were involved in the settlement that were not made public.

MASONIC STATED MEETING.

Phoenix Lodge Number 62, F. & A. M., will hold their regular stated meeting Tuesday night at which time the annual election of officers will take place.

The Farmers Bank of Metamora has filed suit on a note against Harry Colter and Willard Colter, demanding $700.

WAR BREAKS OUT ON FORD PEACE SHIP

Nine Insurgents Will Leave Oscar the Second at First Landing Because of Row.

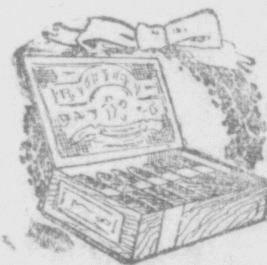

(By United Press.)
Aboard Peace Ship Oscar. The Second, (Via Wireless), Dec. 13.—War has broken out aboard Ford's peace ship.

Several delegates are preparing to quit the ship at Christiana and return to America, alleging that the extreme pacifists have insulted nine delegates who refused to sign a resolution condemning President Wilson's preparedness program.

While Ford signed the resolution he desires the nine insurgents to remain with the ship.

In the row that resulted some profanity was used.

The Ideal Gift

The ideal Christmas gift is the one to which has been applied the Golden Rule—i. e., by putting yourself in the other one's place and thinking just what you would like to have under those circumstances.

Once upon a time it happened that a woman gave her washwoman a pair of pendant pear earrings. If not pearl, they were near pearl and pretty enough for all purposes. This woman remembered having heard the servitor express a wish for them on a hot August day, a wish breathed without any hope of fulfillment. Joy was in one heart that Christmas, for, as the recipient expressed, "Everybody gave me aprons and underwear, but those earrings I do love!" And who shall say that the

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

present was not appropriate? Gifts of sheer prettiness often mean the most, even when they are not expensive. Was it not a Frenchman who said, "Give me the luxuries of life and I can do without the necessities?" Who cannot think of the man who would rather have a subscription to a good magazine than a pair of much needed new gloves? A person will go shabby very contentedly if the heart is warm with the thought of some precious new possession which perhaps he did not really need. We must not forget that gorgeous gifts of frankincense and myrrh were given to the Christ Child in his lowly birthplace. A growing plant, even if nothing more than a blooming crimson geranium, will be a bright spot through many of the gray days of January and February. The dollar mark is no gauge for the ideal Christmas gift. What the boy wants, what the girl desires, what the older man or woman secretly wishes for—these are the things which shall make them happy, no matter if they do not seem appropriate or sensible.

No person is ever poor who has a normal body, good health, a clear eye and a clean mind.

Eat, drink and be merry, if you can. But be merry, anyway.

A gift with a string tied to it is usually of less value than the string.

"Kill the goose that lays the golden egg," if you like. But save the egg.

No man is ever as wise as his neighbor—in the estimation of the neighbor.

Get there on time and leave on time, and perhaps you will be invited to call again.

HOOSIER HISTORY

Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.

MORTON THE STATE

The Democratic legislature of 1863 adjourned without making the necessary appropriations for maintaining the state institutions, to say nothing of military necessities. The intractable Democrats were so sure they could bring Morton to time and force him to call an extra session that many of them did not give up their boarding places at the Capital. But the indomitable Governor did the unprecedented thing. In the face of all kinds of threats from his political enemies, he ran the State for two years on his personal responsibility and efforts, without a appropriations and without a legislature.

COUNTY SENDS SHARE TO STATE

Deputy Auditor Bales Makes December Settlement Today, Forwarding $43,947.82.

REDUCES DEPOSITS HERE

Largest Single Item is State School Tax, Which This Time Amounts to $14,104.28.

A check for $433,947.82 was sent to the state treasurer this morning by Deputy Auditor Charles Bales as the state's share of the taxes collected during the fall payment period. This is known as the December settlement with the state and is based on that portion of the taxes collected at the rate of 40.1 cents, the state tax levy.

The December settlement is about completed and the auditor's office hopes to have the funds distributed to the various townships by the last of this week. Deputy Auditor Bales was in Indianapolis Saturday and the settlement sheet was approved by the state officials. The annual settlement with the state requires a large amount of work and is one of the big worries in the auditor's office. The settlement this year is made eight days sooner than the one last year.

The settlement with the state was divided as follows:

State tax	$ 7,366.08
Benevolent institutional fund	9,916.35
State debt sinking fund	1,487.49
State Educational institutional fund	6,941.52
State school tax	14,104.28
Vocational educational fund	992.58
School fund interest	2,817.87
Permanent endowment fund	162.00
Total	$43,947.82

The payment of this amount will materially decrease the amount of county deposits in the various banking houses. The fund was drawn on two banks.

DECLARES SHE WAS DAUGHTER

Mrs. Margaret Jane Cathers of Bartholomew County Claims to be Child of Drewery A. Massey.

FORMER ORANGE CITIZEN

Asserts he Deserted Her and Mother When a Baby—Massey Never Mentioned Her.

Columbus, Ind., Dec. 13.—Mrs. Margaret Jane Cathers, 80, of near Newbern, has just learned that she is a daughter of Drewery A. Massey, 108 years old, who died in Rush county a few days ago, and that she lived within fifty miles of him for half a century without knowing his whereabouts. Mrs. Cathers asserts her father deserted her and her mother when the former was a baby.

This dispatch from Columbus comes rather strangely after the account and the understanding, current counts of the death of Mr. Massey, everywhere in the neighborhood in which the pioneer and more than centenarian lived the greater part of his life. Interviews with people in the Orange neighborhood today failed to shed any certain light upon the claim of Mrs. Cathers. What she alleges is a part, indeed, of what has been lost in the depths of time.

This lady who claims to be the daughter of the deceased Mr. Massey is herself eighty years of age. Mr. Massey was married four times. He was an old man when the oldest people who were his neighbors and friends in Orange first knew him. His extraordinarily length of life carried him down into a generation which knew him simply as a remarkably old man. If some such affair as the Columbus lady alleges did occur in his early life it is unknown here, and the aged Mr. Massey, so far as it known, never mentioned it. But that a woman eighty years of age should claim to have lived within an hour's ride of her father for more than three-fourths of a century, only to learn of the fact after his demise, arrests the imagination and appeals to the appetite for the wonderful, regardless of the truth of her allegations.

It was known to friends of the late Mr. Massey that he had one daughter, who was thought to live in some far western state. Whether Mrs. Cathers is the daughter referred to is not known here.

ABOUT $25,000 IN CHRISTMAS CLUB

Deposits in Peoples Loan & Trust
Company's Plan Represent Savings of About 1,000 Persons

SUM SAVED NEARLY DOUBLE

Big Increase in Club's Membership
Also Shown as Compared With
First Trial Last Year

Approximately twenty-five thousand dollars will be turned into local trade channels by the Peoples Loan & Trust company by Wednesday, it was announced today. This sum represents the savings of about one thousand persons and reveals the value of thrift. The immense fund
that is to be distributed was started with sums as small as one, two and five cents a week by the individual depositors.

The Christmas Savings Club has shown a remarkable growth. Last year was the first here. There were five hundred members who saved approximately fourteen thousand dollars. This year the amount saved

was nearly doubled, displaying a much wider interest taken in the club.

The checks which are being mailed members of the club are very artistic in design and are made especially for the club. Accompanying each check will be a very neat
and attractive Christmas letter.

The members of the Christmas
Savings Club of 1915 of the Peoples Loan and Trust Company should feel very much pleased with the results, as they compare favorably with much larger cities, indicating that the spirit of thrift is also one of the virtues of this.

It is pleasing to note that a fair
portion of these savings are rede-posited in permanent savings accounts, while the balance is turned
into the regular channels of business, which should make a very noticeable increase in the Christmas
sales of local merchants.

These clubs have become a big feature in starting whole families
to saving and not only the father
and mother join, but it is so arranged that the little folks can also carry a membership. Church societies and lodges wishing to raise
a definite sum for a definite purpose,
have become members, and have been very successful in using the plan. In some instances whole families have taken out cards and the regularity of
their savings has enabled all of them
to enjoy some Christmas feature that has heretofore been out of their reach.

The Christmas Savings Club for 1916 is now forming. Many new members are now joining. Every member of the family will doubtless be interested.

Amusements

The Gem will show the two reel
feature comedy "Room and Board—
A Dollar and a Half" for the first picture tonight. Billie Ritchie is featured and this alone means a great comedy. It is said to be one of his best efforts and the picture is very funny. The other picture is a powerful western drama entitled
"Lon of Lone Mountain." Lon Chan-ney is featured. Tomorrow night
the twelfth installments of "The Broken Coin" will be shown. Julia
Dean, the Broadway star, and Harry D. Carey, considered one of the finest character actors on the American or English stage, are featured in the principal roles of
"Judge Not," an inspiring six-act feature photo-drama, produced by
the Universal Film Mfg. Co., which comes to the Gem theatre on Wednesday.

"Judge Not" was cast into photoplay form by Harvey Gates of the Universal's western scenario staff
from Peter B. Kyne's six-reel story.
Robert Leonard, star and director of
"The Master Key" serial, produced
the picture.

Probably there has never been so powerful a story written as "Should
a Mother Tell," of which Rex Ingram is the author, and which will be presented tonight at the Princess.

Undoubtedly never has there been portrayed, either upon the screen or upon the legitimate stage,
such a delineation of the strength of motherlove as is given by Betty Nansen, Queen of Emotional Acting.

In her former William Fox suc-
cesses, "A Celebrated Scandal,"
"Anna Karenina," and "A Woman's Resurrection," Miss Nansen has risen to such dramatic heights as to have placed her far in the van of emotional artists. But in "Should a Mother Tell?" William Fox has furnished her with a vehicle that brings out such emotional stress as
to leave the audience spellbound—
almost stunned.

Miss Nansen has one answer to the problem, "Should a Mother
Tell?" Many will agree to her solution, many will not. But whether you agree or not, you will remember this sensational photodrama for a long, long time.

Able supporting Miss Nansen are Stuart Holmes, Jean Sothen and an eminent cast of the Fox calibre.

CLOSE GAURO IS KEPT ON REPORTS

Government Sees to it That There Are no Leaks in Census Department—Locked in Room

SCANDAL FEW YEARS AGO

Washington, Dec. 13.—Part of the job of six employees of the commerce department is to be locked up, incommunicado, for several hours two or three times a month. They are the men who get out the census reports on cotton, copper and such things.

At 6 a. m. of the day the report is to be issued, the men are locked in a room. When the telegrams from which their report is compiled are handed in to them. They complete the report, and keep it in the locked room until the hour it is to be given out. The room is so constructed that no signal can be given from it.

At the last minute it is taken to the census department and flashed by wire to the public. Then the prisoners are released.

This plan was devised several years ago following scandals in which it was alleged that Wall street speculators “made a cleaning” by obtaining U. S. reports a few minutes early.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Susan B. Anthony as she was when a young woman, when in her quaint hoop-skirts and tight protecting shawl she ventured almost alone into the capitol and pleaded with jeering congressmen that women be given the vote, will tread the boards here tonight in the monster pageant to be given by suffragists in honor of her memory.

Hundreds of her followers, representatives of the 4,000,000 women voters of the west and congressmen and senators have reserved seats in the big convention hall. The pageant was obtained by Miss Hazel MacKaye.

There will be 400 participants in 10 historic episodes portraying dramatic moments in the fight of the suffrage pioneer to secure recognition for her cause. Symbolic friezes telling of the growth of the movement will be posed between the episodes, while a chorus of a hundred women will sing.

Mrs. Florence Kays Hanson, professional reader, will impersonate Miss Anthony.

Other prominent suffragists will impersonate their leaders of the past as follows:

- Elizabeth Cady Stanton — Mrs. Charlotte Stanley.
- Lucretia Mott — Miss Catherine Reynolds McCormick.
- Wendell Phillips — James R. Daly.
- Mrs. Amelia Bloomer — Mrs. Margaret Hopkins Werrell.
- Daniel Anthony — Howard Treat.
- Mrs. Daniel Anthony — Mrs. Ruth Pierson.
- Hannah Anthony — Miss Leandra de Grange.
- Mary Anthony — Miss Margaret Pierce.

Announcing the First Showing of Eagle "Silkloth" Shirts For Men at $3

As a holiday feature we shall introduce these Shirts, which are here exclusively in this vicinity.

is a new fabric invention, combining fine madras and silk fibre; producing a material which has the luster of silk and yet is as durable as serge. "Silkloth" is woven exclusively for Eagle

Shirts and thus far may be seen only at Mulno's hereabout.

The Shirts are made in plain negligee style, with soft French cuffs attached. The patterns are smart and distinctive stripes in blue, lavender and black on white grounds.

The fact that these Shirts will give a greater degree of service than all-silk Shirts, and that they retain their brilliant lustre, will undoubtedly make them popular.

We shall be glad to have you inspect them.

Pyorrhea—the disease nearly everybody has

No matter how sound your teeth may seem to be, no matter how you may scoff at the idea of your having this disease, it is a positive fact that the germ which causes it is working now in your teeth.

The appalling discovery of this fact—that the germ which causes pyorrhea is one which inhabits every human mouth—was made over a year ago. Since then dentists have been urging everyone to take special precautions in their daily toilet to prevent this disease from developing in its acute form of bleeding gums, tenderness in chewing and loose teeth.

To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sental Remedies Co., 505 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

E. V. Bergen Co. Brings Actions For
Failure to Pay Assessments on Second Street Paving.

ALLEGED LIEN ON PROPERTY

Estes V. Bergen and Everett E. Jeffrey, doing business under the name of E. V. Bergen Co., are the plaintiffs in six suits filed in circuit court to foreclose assessments, alleged to be due for the paving of West Second street. The complaints in each suit are the same, the contractors alleging that the assessments are a lien on the property of the persons named because of their failure to pay for the streets.

The parties named and the amounts asked are as follows: Hyman and Hattie Schatz, $114.89; William E. and Clara Wallace, $209.62; Charles Goddard, $300.32; Melvina Shropshire, $139.38; Athalia Lewark and William Lewark, and William Lewark, $289.21; Geo. $289.21; George E. and Ella Muire, $161.60. Kiplinger and Smith represent the Bergen Company.

Geldie Holcomb Says Husband Announced he Wouldn't Support Her.

Mrs. Goldie F. Holcomb filed suit for divorce today in circuit court from William Holcomb. She asks the custody of their one child and $4 a week for support money. Mrs. Holcomb alleges that he abandoned her in December, 1913, and published notice to the world that he would not be responsible for the support of his wife. The complaint states that he inserted notices in the newspaper announcing this fact. According to the complaint, they were married in Henry county in December, 1912. Mrs. Holcomb is represented by Thomas M. Green.

FOR BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH CROUP, COUGHS and COLDS

Make the Best Remedy at Home— 128 Teaspoonful For 50 Cents.

If everything was sold in as liberal and fair a manner as Fox Bros. Drug Store are selling Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expector, absolutely no cause for complaint or dissatisfaction could possibly arise from anyone. These druggists say —"Buy a bottle of this remedy and try it for Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Severe Cough, Croup or any Bronchial Affection, and we will return your money, just as we do with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, if it does not give satisfaction, or if not found the best remedy ever used for any of these complaints." Why not take advantage of this guarantee and try this medicine, and get your money back, rather than buying another purely on the exaggerated claims of its manufacturer or on the strength of testimonials from others and run the chances of getting something worthless and also wasting your money?

In buying this remedy, besides securing an absolute guarantee of its efficiency from these druggists, you also get about eight times as much medicine as you would in buying most any of the old-fashioned, ready-made kinds, which average from 20 to 32 teaspoonful, because 50c worth makes a whole pint (128 teaspoonful) when mixed at home with simply one pint of sugar and one-half pint of water. This remedy positively does not contain chloroform, opium, morphine or any other narcotic. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. You will be the sole judge, and under this positive guarantee absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy. Druggists everywhere are authorized to sell it under the same guarantee as Schiffmann's famous Asthmador of "Money Back" is not perfectly satisfactory. R. J. Schiffmann, Proprietor, St. Paul, Minn.

BLAMES WAR FOR DEFICIT

Postmaster General Burleson Announces Balance on Wrong Side of Ledger of $11,333,308.97.

WAR COST SERVICE $21,000,000

Declares Loss For Year Would Have Been Greater But For Some Reorganization.

Washington, Dec. 13.—In his annual report upon postal administration during the fiscal year 1915, Postmaster General Burleson announces an audited deficit of $11,333,308.97, caused by the European war and large increases of expenditures which were mandatory under law. The cost of the war to the Postal Service is estimated at $21,000,000.

The Postmaster General states that efficiency of service was placed above cost considerations and that, notwithstanding the adverse revenue conditions, steady expansion and improvement of postal facilities have continued. However, he shows that the deficit would have amounted to at least $24,000,000 but for the reorganization of various branches of the service along modern business lines begun before the war started and continued during the disturbed period.

Of the total deficit, Mr. Burleson's analysis demonstrates that all but $309,688.16 was the result of the increases of salaries of postal employees and additional railway mail pay required by law.

Other important announcements include the following:

1. Renewal of former recommendations for a change from the space basis of adjusting railway mail pay.

2. Startling growth of the parcel post, notwithstanding the falling off in other classes of mail, and the adoption of more liberal regulations regarding the limit of size and the insurance privilege.

3. Maintenance of frequent mail service to all foreign countries, including the belligerent countries of Europe, and important improvements of the facilities of postal exchange between the United States and the countries of South and Central America.

4. Rapid expansion and improvement of rural delivery whereby hundreds of thousands of new patrons are being provided service, despite large reduction of the total cost of rural service.

5. Interesting effects of the war in money-order and postal-savings services, including phenomenal growth of the latter.

6. Good results in protecting the public from fraudulent advertising and in enforcing the fraud-order statutes against swindlers who use the mails to promote fraudulent enterprises.

7. A recommendation for bond-

THE MAUZY CO.

The last full week of Christmas shopping finds this great Christmas store with its vast assortments of desirable gifts unbroken—in fact, with the daily arrivals of new merchandise, as fresh as you might have expected three weeks ago. Sterling quality, good taste and moderate pricing combine in making their appeal to the puzzled gift-buyer. However hard the problem of choosing may seem to you, we are sure that the almost endless variety that is offered you here, will go far toward affording you a solution. This store can satisfactorily fill your gift-list, whether for men, women or children. Thirty salespeople are waiting to serve you.

WHY NOT HOUSE SLIPPERS?
Hundreds of them for men, women and children. The size is here now, but it may not be later.

WHY NOT A COAT
for some lady on your list? Hundreds of them here, and to see them and try them on, is to be pleased.

WHY NOT A SILK WAIST?
Blouses, fresh from the makers, in the newest and daintiest models. One would be an excellent gift. Upwards from $1.00.

WHY NOT A SWEATER?
Our showing is complete, and as a present, nothing would be more practical.

WHY NOT PARISIAN IVORY?
This store always shows by far the largest assortment. Almost any piece you want is here. We show the new green jade, too.

WHY NOT A SUIT

for your wife or daughter? They are this season's best models and every one is ridiculously low priced. Equally alluring are the pretty dresses of silk or wool.

WHY NOT FURS?

A beautiful matched set would be sure to please. Our showing is very complete, and although you may know nothing of fur, you can purchase here with safety.

VISIT TOYLAND

on the first floor, rear. All of 1915's newest toys are here. This is the place to come to delight the boys and girls. Most of them are instructive as well as entertaining.

WHY NOT SILK UNDERWEAR?

Looks good enough to eat. Vests, bloomers and union suits of Italian silk. Envelope chemise, corset covers and skirts of crepe de chene.

WHY NOT A BATH ROBE?

Last week was received a lot of new bath robes for men, women and children. We want you to see them. Genuine Japanese imported silk kimono for the ladies.

WHY NOT A SILK PETTICOAT?

Our December allotment has arrived and they are beauties. Adjustable waist bands, in all colors and priced from $1.98 to $5.98

WHY NOT SILK HOSE?

A pair of elegant Gordon Hose in a neat holiday box—why not? A score of shades to choose from.

ing postmasters and post-office employees by the Postmaster General in lieu of the present system. The establishment of a guaranty fund to be raised by assessments against the salaries of the officers and employees now required to furnish bonds is proposed.

8. That postal needs will be served and the science of aviation encouraged by the establishment of an aerial mail service.

9. Renewal of the recommendations of 1913 and 1914 for Government ownership of telegraphs and telephones.

10. Recommendation for the removal of 4-pound weight limit upon first-class mail.

Motor-vehicle service was authorized under the joint resolution extending postal appropriations of 1915 for the fiscal year 1916. In the direction of the Postmaster General and pay of rural carriers who furnish and maintain their own motor vehicles and who serve routes not less than 50 miles in length may be fixed at not exceeding $1,800 a year. Under this provision 671 automobile routes have not been authorized at the date of this report, of which 438 are in operation. The remainder of the authorized motor-vehicle routes will go into operation at varying dates in the near future.

The automobile is being introduced only after recommendation by postmasters or inspectors in localities where road and weather conditions will admit of using motor vehicles at least nine months of the year.

A RUSHVILLE INTERVIEW

Mr. Priest Tells His Experience.

The following brief account of an interview with a Rushville man over five years ago, and its sequel will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Geo. Priest, 223 W. 3d street, Rushville, says: "I have been afflicted more or less with kidney trouble for several years. It came on me gradually and each day, I could notice that it was becoming worse. It started with a dull pain directly over my kidneys, dizzy spells followed and there seemed to be specks before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended for such ailments and I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They proved to be the best medicine of the kind I had ever used. In a short time they freed me from that distressing pain in my back and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

The above statement was given on March 9, 1910, and on Aug. 26, 1915, Mr. Priest said: "Whenever my kidneys bother me, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they always give good results. My former endorsement still holds good."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Priest has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Will You Read This Twice?

A very important question to-day which every housekeeper must decide for herself is whether she prefers pure, cream of tartar baking powder like Royal or whether she is willing to use baking powder made of inferior substitutes which do not add healthful qualities to the food.

One kind is easily distinguished from the other, since the laws of various States require the ingredients to be printed upon the label. If anyone is in doubt which kind is most healthful, it is worth while to ask the family doctor. Then decide.

And when once a decision is reached let no advertisement or dealer's argument or canvasser's solicitation change the decision. It is not a question of a few cents or of pleasing a salesman. It is a question of health.

If this appeals to you as reasonable and sensible advice, it is worth reading twice. And it is worth remembering.

Amusements

Craufurd Kent, whose success in Broadway productions caused him to be engaged by Kalem, has been featured in the four-act "Broadway Favorites" comedy drama, "The Pretenders," which comes to the Princess on tonight. Mr. Kent has probably never appeared in a role which shows him to such excellent advantage as that of Dick Mason, the young clubman who pretends to be a farmer when he meets Elsie Dunbar, a spoiled child of society, who is summering out in the country. Elsie, in turn, deceives Dick by pretending to be a farmer's daughter. Later, the two are led to mistake each other for burglars and, together with a sure-enough burglar, are yanked to the village lockup. The circumstances leading up to this are just crammed with laughter and excitement. Be sure you see "The Pretenders." Tomorrow matinee and night Lillian Lorraine and William Courtleigh will be seen in "Neal of the Navy."

Grace Cunard and Francis Ford will be seen in the twelfth episode of "The Broken Coin" at the Gem tonight. There are real bull fight scenes in this picture which makes it very thrilling. Violet Mae Millan will also be featured in a dandy comedy "The Magic Bon-Bon." Tomorrow matinee and night will be shown the celebrated Broadway feature, "Judge Not."

Julia Dean, the Broadway star of "The Law of the Land," plays the leading feminine role, supported by Harry D. Carey, who was featured in the multiple reel masterpiece "Just Jim." Director Robert Leonard, who produced the thirty-episode serial, "The Master Key," staged "Judge Not," which is considered by film critics to be one of the Universal's best Broadway star features.

The Goodfellows League.

United praise is due the Good Fellows who by some mental process are joined in the work of the Goodfellows League, the only aim of which is to take Christmas cheer to all of the unfortunate children in Rushville who have no hope of a Merry Christmas without the Good Fellows aid. These little folks would get a dark vision of life and would think Santa Claus a myth but for the organization that makes a merry Christmas for unfortunates its keynote.

The Good Fellows movement originated some years ago with a great metropolitan daily, reported in some quarters to be the Chicago Tribune. It has grown and spread like wildfire until many newspapers both great and small have taken up with the idea.

The Good Fellows League locally has no complaint to make, although new members did come in slowly at first. However, as the League felt, there were plenty of Good Fellows who would make themselves known in ample time. Still there is plenty of room for Good Fellows yet. They can come as long as they like because the more there are, just so much more will the little folks get.

The League and all of its members should be many time indebted to the charitable women who have braved all sorts of weather to go into all homes of the city where they felt gifts from Good Fellows would be welcome and gets particulars concerning wards of the League. The work was a pleasure to them, just as it is to every Good Fellow who enlists in the glorious work.

Some conception of the enormity of the task and the thoroughness with which it is done in Chicago may be obtained from the following in the Chicago Tribune, written by Henry M. Hyde:

Last year the Good Fellows of Chicago took care of 18,000 children. This year, because there are so many people out of work, there are nearly 25,000 kids on the list. The same causes which have increased the number of children seem to have cut down the number of Good Fellows. All the more reasons why the charter members of the fraternity should rise to the emergency.

There are now just about 8,000 children in the Good Fellow files for whom no one has yet agreed to play Santa Claus. Every one of them has been investigated; has had the contents of his little stomach analyzed, and has proved to the satisfaction of an eminent expert that the foundation of the republic are not likely to totter if somebody gives him two oranges, a picture book, and a drum for Christmas. There isn't a gold brick in the lot.

By calling at the Good Fellow office on the third floor of the Tribune building you can get, for the asking, the names and addresses of a family of children, who "won't have no Christmas" unless you bring it to them. If you can't call, send a check, though the real Good Fellow will play the game, spend his own money, and collect his own dividends by getting personally acquainted with the kids.

Current CommentsPersistency Wins.

(Indiana Times.)

The advertiser who keeps everlastingly at it is the one who gets results. This great advertising truth was proved most clearly and emphatically not long ago. An advertiser who was just beginning to make his business known nationally decided to make himself famous at a single stroke. For more than $8,000 he bought two pages in one issue of a prominent weekly. He sowed the $8,000. It was a prodigious use of big money. He looked for big returns. He waited. The harvest of customers did not come. The reason was simple. Those who did not respond to the big advertisement when they saw it, forgot to respond later, when the advertisement was not there to remind them. In this case a considerable sum of money went to waste. An announcement, naturally forgotten when it was three days old, was the sum and substance of the effect of the expenditure of that $8,000.

The better plan, the reasonable, result-getting plan would have been to use the same money to place the advertising in quarter pages in the dailies of twelve or more large cities three times a week for, say three weeks. Six insertions might have been obtained for approximately the same money that went for a single announcement under the plan this advertiser erroneously adopted. Through the newspapers the advertiser would have reached more people and the people would have seen his advertisement six times instead of once. Newspaper advertising yields the surest and most profitable results.

Four Jumps to Salonika

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD.

Salonica, Oct. 31 (By Mail)—The four jumps from Paris to the Salonica front take three weeks; they are full of waits, interest and excitement, of submarine dodging, sightseeing. Perhaps you'd like to take the trip. John McCutcheon, the American cartoonist, and James H. Hare, veteran war photographer, are in the party.

Very well! It's 10 at night in the P. L. M. station in Paris and you're climbing into the sleeping car. You've been worrying. Four days ago you reserved berth and paid a bonus to your hotel for securing them. As the train pulls out you discover that the car is practically our private car. Few folks are traveling toward Italy in wartime.

You ask the porter for a detachable lamp for your berth.

"Haven't got any extra ones."

"Why?"

"This is wartime."

"That's silly," you say angrily.

"Say! I used to run on the Oriental express from Vienna to Constantinople," says the French porter, who is also conductor. "Didn't I use to see you hanging around Vienna?"

"Never been in Vienna," you lie. But what he has said cools you down; he's practically telling you that if you don't shut up about the berth lamp he'll charge you with being an Austrian spy. He's got the drop on you; you're nothing but a poor, helpless foreigner in France in wartime. So you go to bed without the lamp; no chance of reading yourself to sleep this night.

There's a dining car hitched on for breakfast. But there's nothing but coffee and bread, no eggs no bacon—"It's the war!"

There's no diner for lunch. Same reason. For supper you pump off at a station, buy a cold chicken, pickles and bottled water and get the crumbs all over the the carpet of your compartment.

The second morning you're in Rome. Your trunk doesn't show up. It's back in Paris. Same reason as no eggs.

At the American embassy you find Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page greatly worried as to the welfare of his son-in-law, a major in the British army. A British transport has been sunk near Salonika; the chances are his son-in-law was on it but there is no way to learn. Will you carry letters to Salonika for the major and try to learn something as to his welfare? It's an errand you gladly assume. You're going right into the fog of war and you may meet the major there if the ambassador's fears are not well founded.

There's a day lay over in Rome and you go to see the ruins of the forum. It's a sadder sight than it has ever been in all its 2,000 years. It is deserted, except for two old guides, professor looking persons; the paths, which have been pounded by the feet of scores of thousands of American school teachers, of girls from American finishing schools, and of a few other tourists, are empty.

The two guides quarrel for you, in a professorlike and dignified manner and you take the one whose frock coat is the shabbiest.

"You're the first American tourists that have been here for five

Is Your Stomach Clogged With Waste?

Johnson's Drug Store Guarantees to Return the Money if Mi-o-na Does Not Relieve You.

"It's a pleasure to sell a medicine when the customers come in afterward and tell us how much good it has done them," said Johnson's Drug Store, the popular druggists to a Daily Republican man, "that is why we like to sell and recommend Mi-o-na, the dyspepsia remedy. Johnson's Drug Store have so much faith in this article that they are going to guarantee it in the future, and will return the money to any purchaser of Mi-o-na whom it does not help. That may seem rash but the customers have said so many good words in its favor that they do not expect to have many packages returned.

"Anyone who has dyspepsia, whose food does not digest well, and who has to take thought as to what he can eat, and when, can leave 50 cents deposit at their store and take home a box of Mi-o-na and if the remedy does not regulate his digestion and help his dyspepsia he can withdraw his money."

This shows great faith in the merit of Mi-o-na. It is really a most unusual medicine and the rapid increase of sales since Johnson's Drug Store introduced it in Rushville shows that it does all that it is claimed to do—relieves dyspepsia, regulates digestion and enables them who use it to eat what they want with no fear of trouble after.

WAR ODDITIES

London—The National Association of Grocery Assistants announces that girl clerks taking the place of men are not a great success.

London—Police, attracted by unusual noises, found an example of war thrift in the form of a chicken farm located on the roof of a downtown business building.

London—Artilleryman W. Birch, who has fought from Mons to Gallipoli, has thus far suffered 180 wounds, mostly shrapnel, and is still in the ring.

Paris—Probably the world's family war record is held by Bernard Guichard, laborer of Saone et Loire Department, whose 17 sons are fighting and whose 18th will be, shortly.

London—Three cigars, presented to the Captain of the White Star Liner Teutonic by King Edward, the Duke of Edinburgh and the Kaiser, sold for $110 for the Red Cross at Henley.

CHRISTMAS GOODIES

Corn balls are always a favorite with children and may be easily made during the crisp days of winter. Pictured in this illustration is a novel way of utilizing corn balls which would bring joy to the heart of any youngster.

First, of course, the corn must be popped. Pick over, discarding kernels that have not popped, and put in a large kettle. There should be three quarts. Sprinkle with one-half teaspoonful of salt. Melt one tablespoonful of butter in a saucepan and add one cupful of molasses and one-half cup of sugar. Bring to the boiling point and let boil until mixture will become brittle when tried in cold water. Pour mixture gradually, while stirring constantly, over corn, turning the corn frequently that the kernels may be well coated, and place in the balls as they are being shaped wooden toothpicks, leaving the sharp ends exposed about an inch.

The next step in this operation of making the cute little "Popcorn Little" is to buy or make some little knitted dolls. To buy them would be much easier. Stick the sharp ends of the toothpicks which have been embedded in the popcorn balls into the head, arms and legs of the little knitted dolly, and you have a fascinating toy for the kiddies which will last long after the popcorn balls have gone the way of all popcorn.

Be sure to see the 1916 Model Dantley vacuum cleaner. A fine Christmas present. Holiday price $5.23, at Haydon's. 23613

MUST DEVISE A FINANCIAL LEVER

Senator McCumber of North Dakota
Advocates Bond Issue Instead of Increasing Taxes.

DISCUSSES THE U. S. DEFICIT

Can't Imagine Tax Which Would be as Harmful and Distasteful as Tax on Gasoline.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Discussing the financial condition of the United States treasury, Senator Porter J. McCumber, of North Dakota, a member of the finance committee of the Senate, today declared that "we are in a bad hole and must devise some kind of a financial lever to pry ourselves out."

He advocates a bond issue instead of increasing taxes.

"As to the extent we are in the hole," he added, "there seems to be a difference of opinion between the Secretary and the Democratic leader of the House. Mr. Kitchin declares we are in a worse condition than the secretary's statement would indicate; but they both agree that we are in bad."

"The last Republican administration was not only paying all the ordinary running expenses of the government, without devising new and additional methods of taxation, but was also meeting the heavy demands due to the construction of the Panama canal, and still maintaining a good surplus in the treasury. With the enactment of the new tariff law began the process of rapid depletion of the treasury. Undoubtedly the war has played some part in this work; but, war or no war, a deficit was certain. Our revenues for imports declined rapidly before the war and pointed definitely toward either a bond issue or additional taxation. The administration, fearful of the influence of a bond issue upon the coming elections, chose to impose war taxes to meet the cash requirements of the treasury."

"In my judgment the party jumped from the frying pan into the fire. These added taxes are not only burdensome, but extremely annoying and unpopular. I cannot but believe that increasing them or extending their operation would be far more popular than a bond issue."

"And why should the administration be fearful of a bond issue? We all know the hole in the treasury vaults will have to be filled. That fact cannot be kept from the public. Why not issue bonds and let the next Republican Congress take care of them? It will not be the first time that party has been called upon to take care of a Democratic deficit. Why should we distress ourselves with more excessive tax burdens when we can easily devise a less burdensome method in the near future which will take care of any government note we may now be compelled to give?"

"I cannot imagine a tax which would be as harmful and distasteful as a tax on gasoline. This is a petroleum age. Its products, kerosene and gasoline, enter into the economies of every household. Kerosene furnishes all the country lighting throughout the land. Gasoline is used most extensively, and in many places exclusively, for cooking and also for heating in the spring and summer months. It furnishes the motor power for delivery wagons and trucks, farm tractors and engines, and supplies the enormous auto demand of all the people. The auto has long since ceased to be the vehicle of the rich and well-to-do. Its use is almost universal. Its cost will be in the near future so reduced that practically every family can own one. No other invention has given so much recreation and healthful pleasure to the public. It is giving to farm life an attractiveness never before attained as it brings whole counties within calling and visiting range. Every effort should be made to increase its use for the benefit and pleasure of all. That use should never be retarded or made more expensive by any system of added taxation. Every auto owner now pays, not only a general tax on his machine, but, in addition, quite a heavy license tax. The auto is doing more than its share in meeting the expenses of better roads throughout the country. The price of gasoline is a matter of far greater concern to the poor than to the rich.

"An increased income tax, which not so objectionable as a gasoline and additional auto tax, will, nevertheless, be a considerable burden."

"The proper remedy for the present condition is a bond issue, the bonds to be paid out of revenues which can be produced by a change in our customs duties and which will meet both the bonds and the running expenses of the government without hardship and without increasing the cost of living."

CHRISTMAS DINING ROOM.

It goes without saying that holly and mistletoe must enter into your scheme of Christmas decorations. A pretty idea is to hang the chandelier of the dining room with greens and holly and from that carry loosely long ropes of ground pine to each corner of the room, thus making a canopy for the table. A bit of mistletoe skillfully introduced where all will have to pass under it in leaving the room may add to the fun.

In the center of the table lay a reflector or burnished copper tray and on this a glass or copper bowl of holly, frosted, as though it had just come in from the wintry fields.

For the favors to be laid down by the place cards there are tiny earthen pots with miniature decorated Christmas trees or cute little snow boys, like the one in the illustration that may be bought very reasonably. If candles are to light the table use red shades with a bit of holly gummed on each. Trim your plum pudding with holly, putting a sprig in the center. Just before bringing into the room pour a little brandy around the pudding and light at the moment of entering. Have the Christmas punch bowl wreathed with holly. The scarlet Christmas bells made of tissue paper add to the bright and cheery appearance of the room.

One of the most decorative ways to finish a table is with ribbons strung from the chandelier in such a way as to reach the plates. To the end of each ribbon can be attached a gift, if it be no more than a rose.

When the company is seated—and in seating there should be the same attention to couples as at an ordinary dinner—then comes the serving of the feast.

It is a time honored custom to place the turkey on the table before the guests come in or to set forth the ducks, the geese, the roast of beef or the loin of pork—whatever may be the Christmas bird.

But in these later and more pampered days the stomach rebels against the sudden plunge into the roast, and the palate demands a relish—oysters, soup, fish and goodness knows what all! The roast comes later, flanked with a green salad and with vegetables and with the mound of cranberries.

If the turkey must be present from the beginning to the end, it is a wise plan to place him upon a side table. Here he can be carved and distributed. Upon the table he is always in the way, and there is no room nor comfort for the carver. He, if he so please, can exhibit his skill from a side table, and the guests can be served by a serving maid, who will carry the plates around.

Every Christmas dinner must have its touch of holly.

HOW APPENDICITIS CAN BE PREVENTED

Rushville people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This simple mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE TEASPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Adler-i-ka has easiest and most thorough action of anything we ever sold. F. E. Wolcott, Druggist. (Advertisement.)

Unofficial And Personal "Conversations" Being Held Over That Ancona Note Today

AMICABLE ADJUSTMENT HOPED

(By United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 14.—Informal, confidential negotiations between Austria and the United States to reach a settlement regarding the Ancona incident were being held today. Both in Washington and Vienna the unofficial and personal "conversations" were proceeding, supplementing the note sent by this government. By this method both governments hope an avenue of amicable adjustment may be found.

Baron Zwiadineck's conference with Secretary Lansing was the first of several private conferences planned. American Ambassador Penfield is also conferring with Austrian Foreign Minister Burian.

NOTE CAUSES SURPRISE

Geneva, Dec. 14.—The sharp tone of the American note to Austria regarding the sinking of the Ancona has caused the greatest surprise in official circles in Vienna, according to advices received here today. No hint of Austria's possible attitude is obtainable here.

He says he had a choice of clay, asphalt or cement courts and took the cement for the set.

thusiastic in their support of the Portland man.

"It is gossip in the state capital that the suffrage forces will call on Adair at an early date and ask him for a statement and that the forces which are fighting for resubmission of the proposition to revise the state constitution will also give the new candidate an opportunity to say where he stands on this issue, so it seems that Adair will not get far before he will be forced to make a personal platform on which to make his campaign for votes in the primary.

"O'Brien was never a dangerous candidate when considered from a standpoint of the sentiment of the rank and file. VanNuys is not to be taken seriously but Adair's candidacy will get somewhere. The man who beats him will be the next governor.

Editorially The Forum says:

"As a matter of fact Adair has been an affable trimer for years. His idea that he must have no positive platform of his own, that he must keep his mouth shut until a platform has been made for him, so that he won't embarrass any one, is very typical of his political thinking. "Adair's advent into the contest is not so much evidence of a disposition to reform on the part of the state organization, as it is evidence of the desperate straits in which the organization really finds itself in the face of the determined opposition of the progressive element. It is not to be denied that Adair has an element of strength but to think that he will be able to unite the factions of the party is to go contrary to all the evidence. Adair's entrance into the race makes absolutely certain a warm fight for the Democratic nomination between the organization and Adair on one side and the progressive behind anti-machine man on the other."

Greece Enters Into Agreement With Allies, With Bulgarian Shells
Falling on Her

NO MATERIAL DAMAGE DONE

(By United Press.)
Athens, Dec. 14.—The Athens newspapers announce that Greece will demobilize fifty per cent of her troops under an agreement just entered into with the allies.

A violent artillery battle is being fought along the Serbo-Greek frontier, according to word received here today.

Bulgarian shells are falling on Greek territory but thus far have done no material damage to any Greek property. Dispatches filed from frontier points late yesterday said that no Bulgarian or Tueton soldiers have crossed the Greek border. But before many hours it is believed the pursuit of the retreat Anglo-French forces will be resumed and fighting will begin on Greek soil.

WATSON LOSES SUPPORTER

S. M. Sexton, Dead in Indianapolis,
Was a Staunch Friend.

In the death of Samuel M. Sexton at Indianapolis James E. Watson of this city lost a staunch supporter. Mr. Sexton was a noted labor leader and from 1901 to 1908 was editor of the Mine Workers' Journal. Since that time he has been retired and had frequently contributed forceful articles on timely topics to the columns of the Indianapolis Star. He was a great defender of Mr. Watson's public acts and often wrote on that subject. He was sixty-two years of age and had lived in Indianapolis only about a year of the time since he resigned as the Mine Journal's editor.

THREE ENGINES HIT AUTOMOBILE

Walter Gartin's Machine is Shoved
Off C. H. & D. Track and Three
Occupants Painfully Hurt.

ACCIDENT IN MAIN STREET

Will Carter, Louis Mauzy, Lawrence
Clark and Owner Saved From
Death When Auto Stays Upright.

Walter Gartin, Louis Mauzy, Lawrence Clark and Will Carter had a close call from death Sunday night about 10:30 o'clock when the Gartin auto in which they were riding was struck by a C. H. & D. engine, or rather 3 engines coupled together at Main street crossing. The accident was remarkable in many respects. All four were more or less bruised, but their injuries are not serious. Of the four Louis Mauzy was injured the most painfully.

The Gartin machine was traveling north in Main street and the three engines were backing towards the water tank east of the city. Gartin, who was driving the machine, stated today that he failed to see any lights and did not have any warning of the approaching engines.

The auto was struck near the front end and pushed from the track. The machine was thrown into Fourth street and finally stopped near the lawn at the Frank Capp home. The auto was badly damaged, one wheel being smashed; the lights broken off and the hood badly dented.

The three engines were stopped near Perkins street crossing. One of the auto lamps was jammed in the wheels of the tender of the engine that struck the auto and it was necessary for the train to move forward before it could be taken out. The occupants of the auto were given a big scare. The crash was heard for several blocks and hundreds viewed the wreck auto last night and this morning.

It was considered remarkable that the three heavy engines just pushed the auto to one side. The machine did not turn over, which probably accounts for the fact that the occupants were not injured to any great extent. Mr. Mauzy suffered greatly from a blow in the abdomen, but it is not believed he is hurt internally.

Mr. Gartin stated today that following the accident he inspected the first engine of the three and found no light of any kind displayed. The engines were not traveling at a high rate of speed, it was stated.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 13.—Governor Ralston held a second conference with Thomas K. Patterson concerning conditions at Muncie and informed the man from Muncie that he would take up with Attorney General Stotsenburg the question of whether a representative of the attorney general can be lawfully assigned to assist at the impeachment trial of Mayor Bunch of Muncie. Governor Ralston repeated that he wished to see Muncie a law abiding city. Muncie is "dry" and violating the liquor laws are the ones referred to.

WILL MEET WEDNESDAY

County Board Will Make Some Efficiency Appropriations.

The county council will meet Wednesday in special session to make a few deficiency appropriations and to renew some bridge appropriations. There is a shortage in several funds that requires an extra appropriation. Several bridge contracts were awarded and appropriations were made to cover the expense of building. The bridges were not constructed this year and in order to complete the work next year the money must again be appropriated.

THOUGHTS OF XMAS COME WITH SNOW

This Should Arouse Good Fellows
Still Out of League Because
There is Much to do.

WABDS ARE TAKEN TODAY

Two crisp one dollar bills contributed and four names taken off the list constituted the activity within the ranks of the Goodfellows League today. Mrs. Meta Smith gave two dollars to the League to be spent on the unfortunate little folks and Miss Helen Seudder's class of girls of St. Paul's M. E. church took the names of four children, all in one family, and will see that they are not disappointed on Christmas morning.

The going is still slow for the League, however. The snowfall of last night and today should turn thoughts of Good Fellows to Christmas. It is not improbable that their first thought would be of the little unfortunates who are without hope unless the Good Fellows come to their rescue. There are over a hundred names on the list yet and many more to be added in the next two or three days. Good Fellows who want to help should make their wants known now. Don't delay.

RUNS INTO CURB TO AVOID "HEAD ON"

Joe Lakin Breaks Rear Wheel on
Automobile to Prevent Striking
Clen Miller's Machine.

SLIPPERY STREET BLAMED

In trying to avoid hitting the machine driven by Clen (Dusty) Miller, Joe Lakin crashed into the curbing and the right rear wheel of his auto was torn off. The accident occurred this morning at the intersection of Second and Perkins streets.

Lakin was driving east in Second street and Miller was coming south in Perkins streets. The machines hit head on, but it was a glancing blow and Lakin pulled to the right to prevent any damage. The slippery condition of the street caused the machine to crash into a pole and the rear wheel gave way. The Miller machine was not damaged.

COUNTY CLUB IS ORGANIZED HERE

Republicans Will be United in Compact Body by Organization at Meeting Saturday

DR. J. C. SEXTON PRESIDENT

Plans Formulated to Run Special I.
& C. Cars to Indianapolis For Love Feast Dec. 30.

A county Republican club was organized at the meeting of the Republican precinct committeemen at the court house assembly room Saturday afternoon and plans were formulated to send a big delegation from this county to the Republican statewide love feast at Indianapolis Thursday, December 30.

Dr. J. C. Sexton was elected president and Walter Hubbard secretary of the Republican club. The rest of the organization will be perfected by the precinct committeemen. They will each select a member of the membership committee and a vice-president for their precinct.

Present plans call for a crowd of several hundred Republicans to go to Indianapolis for the state love feast, which is expected to be the biggest thing the state committee has done in preparation for the 1916 campaign.

There will be delegations from every county in the state. In view of the fact that Rush county has the leading candidate for United States senator, Republican leaders feel that this county should make a good showing. Special cars will be run on the I. & C. traction line and the round trip tickets good going on the specials will sell for one dollar each. The tickets will be good returning on any regular car for three days. Tickets may be purchased from the precinct committeemen. Persons who plan to go are urged to buy their interurban tickets at once so that it may be determined as early as possible how many special cars will be needed. Bands will accompany the local delegation.

President J. C. Sexton urges that every man from eighteen years up see his precinct committeeman at once and place his name on the membership blank. There are no dues, no initiation fee and no assessments in connection with the new club. Membership blanks are in the hands of the committeemen. Everyone interested in what the club stands for is requested to join immediately.

Headquarters for the club will be opened within a few days—by the first of next year at any rate—in the rooms over Callaghan company's store, the same place that was used by the county central committee in the last campaign.

The precinct committeemen will hold another meeting Saturday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock. The membership blank which each member of the club is asked to sign consists of the following:

We, the undersigned, desire to become members of the Rush County Republican club. We believe in the principles of the Republican party and hereby agree to give our best efforts for its success in 1916:

AGREE ON TROOP MOVEMENT.

AUTO MISHAP IS BASIS OF SUIT

John W. Bever of Noble Township
Seeks $800 Damages From I.
& C. Traction Company.

NEGLIGENCE IS ALLEGED

Case Starts Today, Bever Testifying
That Auto, Formerly Worth
$1,000, Would Bring Only $150.

The wreck of an automobile by an Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction car in Connersville July 3, 1915, is the basis of a damage suit starting in circuit court this morning. The plaintiff is John W. Bever of Noble township and he demands damages of the traction company in the sum of $500.

Negligence on the part of the defendant is alleged in the complaint. Bever was the first witness to testify. At the time of the accident the auto was driven by his son, Arthur Bever. Bever stated that, together with his family, he had gone to Connersville to trade on the evening of the accident and that his son took the machine in order to take his "girl" home. It was while on this mission that the accident occurred.

At the time of the accident Arthur Bever was accompanied by Henry Crane and the Misses Mildred Dawson and Helen Storer. John stated that the machine before the accident was worth $1,000 and following the accident was so badly damaged as to be worth only $150. The accident occurred at the intersection of Walnut and Tenth streets, Connersville.

Not much difficulty was experienced in obtaining a jury. The jury is as follows: Frank Hudelson, Ora E. Hite, Arthur George, George W. Thomas, E. A. Kirkpatrick, Herschel E. Daubenspeck, J. T. Bennet, Oliver Siler, Samuel H. Trabue, J. E. Farthing and James Gatewood. Bever is represented by C. W. Duncan and the traction company by Kiplinger and Smith of this city and W. A. Kittenger of Anderson. Owing to the cold weather affecting the court room, court was held today in the juvenile room.

John Gray took an appeal to the appellate court in the case brought against him by Otis Gray. Judge Sparks placed the appeal bond at $750 and George Gray was accepted as surety. Sixty days were given in which to file a bill of exceptions.

The case of the Hoosier Fence company against Jacob A. Parrish, on a note demanding $150, was dismissed this morning by the plaintiff and the costs paid.

WHAT WILL GERMANY SAY?

Its Attitude Toward Austria in Ancona Case Puzzling.

(By United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 13.—How Germany will advise Austria to answer the Ancona note, made public today—the sharpest communication the United States has sent to a belligerent—was the big question facing official Washington today.

On the answer depends whether a long diplomatic negotiations must be endured and whether Austria will yield at all.

FOUND DEAD TODAY SITTING IN CHAIR

Newton Paxton, Age 60 Years, Expires Suddenly While in Small Tenant House.

IN USUAL HEALTH SUNDAY

Newton Paxton, sixty years old, was found dead sitting in a chair this morning at his tenant house on the Mrs. Sallie Davis farm, in Center township, near Mays. The discovery was made by Will Davis, who happened to go to the house. Mr. Paxton was a resident of Mays most of his life and had been working at the Davis farm for the past two weeks. The coroner was called to investigate and it is believed that death was due to heart disease. The body was found at ten o'clock this morning.

Mr. Paxton was up and around as usual yesterday, and appeared to be in his usual health. It is believed that he died this morning as indications pointed to this. He is survived by one son and two sisters, Mrs. Albert Bowles and Jefferson Kirkpatrick and one brother, John Paxton. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

URGES AN ARMISTICE NOW

(By United Press.)
New York, Dec. 13.—Henry Ford today by wireless called upon rulers of warring European nations to declare an immediate truce and to begin peace negotiations at once.

The message went to every ruler of Europe and was as follows:

"We do earnestly entreat you and the rulers of all other European nations to declare an immediate truce," Ford urged. "Let the armies stand where they are. Then let the negotiations proceed so that soldiers may be delivered from another bitter winter in the trenches and sent back to their labors and their firesides."

MAY HAVE TO GO BEFORE PEOPLE

Possibility of Tom Taggart Having to be Elected National Committeemen, it is Believed.

McCOMBS ORDER APPLIED

National Chairman's Call is For Primaries to Choose Committeemen and Delegates.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 13.—Thomas Taggart, if he is to succeed himself as Democratic national committeeman from Indiana, may be forced to go before the people as a primary election candidate. Taggart was elected four years ago by the state committee.

Various authorities here gave the above local application here today to the order of National Chairman McCombs in his call for the Democratic national convention at St. Louis.

McCombs called for primaries to elect delegates to the national convention and national committeemen. Bryan Democrats here today recalled Bryan's fight for a "dry" national committeeman in Iowa and predicted that he might decide Taggart not "dry" enough and might oppose Taggart at such a primary as McCombs ordered.

Attorney General Stotsenburg today said that Indiana's direct primary law provides that delegates to the national convention shall be elected by the state convention and that no order by national committee chairman could displace it. He was not sure, however, whether the state committee would have to call a special primary to elect a national committeeman.

FOR PERPETRATING FRAUD

L. Lucian Roberts Arrested Today
For Making False Loans.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 13.—L. Lucian Roberts of Denver, Colo., who was arrested by a deputy United States marshal in Fort Wayne was placed in jail here today to be held until he is returned to Pueblo, Colo., for trial on the charge of using the mails to defraud. Roberts is said to be a representative of the American Canadian Securities company of Denver. It is charged that he offered loans to farmers and that when ten per cent of the loan had been collected in advance as security he disappeared. He was trailed by postal inspectors to Fort Wayne.

FINED BY SQUIRE

The theft of a dollar necktie cost John Ricker $1 and costs in Squire Kratzer's court Sunday. The tie was taken from the O. P. C. H. clothing store and the charge against Ricker was filed by Jack Knecht, one of the owners of the store. It was understood that some other things were involved in the settlement that were not made public.

WAR BREAKS OUT ON FORD PEACE SHIP

Nine Insurgents Will Leave Oscar the Second at First Landing Because of Row.

(By United Press.)
Aboard Peace Ship Oscar. The Second, (Via Wireless), Dec. 13.—War has broken out aboard Ford's peace ship.

Several delegates are preparing to quit the ship at Christiania and return to America, alleging that the extreme pacifists have insulted nine delegates who refused to sign a resolution condemning President Wilson's preparedness program.

While Ford signed the resolution he desires the nine insurgents to remain with the ship.

In the row that resulted some profanity was used.

The Ideal Gift

The ideal Christmas gift is the one to which has been applied the Golden Rule—i. e., by putting yourself in the other one's place and thinking just what you would like to have under those circumstances. Once upon a time it happened that a woman gave her washwoman a pair of pendant pear earrings. If not pearl, they were near pearl and pretty enough for all purposes. This woman remembered having heard the servitor express a wish for them on a hot August day, a wish breathed without any hope of fulfillment. Joy was in one heart that Christmas, for, as the recipient expressed, "Everybody gave me aprons and underwear, but those earrings I do love!" And who shall say that the

It's Easy — If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

present was not appropriate? Gifts of sheer prettiness often mean the most, even when they are not expensive. Was it not a Frenchman who said, "Give me the luxuries of life and I can do without the necessities?" Who cannot think of the man who would rather have a subscription to a good magazine than a pair of much needed new gloves? A person will go shabby very contentedly if the heart is warm with the thought of some precious new possession which perhaps he did not really need. We must not forget that gorgeous gifts of frankincense and myrrh were given to the Christ Child in his lowly birthplace. A growing plant, even if nothing more than a blooming crimson geranium, will be a bright spot through many of the gray days of January and February. The dollar mark is no gauge for the ideal Christmas gift. What the boy wants, what the girl desires, what the older man or woman secretly wishes for—these are the things which shall make them happy, no matter if they do not seem appropriate or sensible.

No person is ever poor who has a normal body, good health, a clear eye and a clean mind.

Eat, drink and be merry, if you can. But be merry, anyway.

A gift with a string tied to it is usually of less value than the string.

"Kill the goose that lays the golden egg," if you like. But save the egg.

No man is ever as wise as his neighbor—in the estimation of the neighbor.

Get there on time and leave on time, and perhaps you will be invited to call again.

HOOSIER HISTORY

Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.

MORTON THE STATE

The Democratic legislature of 1863 adjourned without making the necessary appropriations for maintaining the state institutions, to say nothing of military necessities. The intractable Democrats were so sure they could bring Morton to time and force him to call an extra session that many of them did not give up their boarding places at the Capital. But the indomitable Governor did the unprecedented thing. In the face of all kinds of threats from his political enemies, he ran the State for two years on his personal responsibility and efforts, without a appropriations and without a legislature.

COUNTY SENDS SHARE TO STATE

Deputy Auditor Bales Makes December Settlement Today, Forwarding $43,947.82.

REDUCES DEPOSITS HERE

Largest Single Item is State School Tax, Which This Time Amounts to $14,104.28.

A check for $43,947.82 was sent to the state treasurer this morning by Deputy Auditor Charles Bales as the state's share of the taxes collected during the fall payment period. This is known as the December settlement with the state and is based on that portion of the taxes collected at the rate of 40.1 cents, the state tax levy.

The December settlement is about completed and the auditor's office hopes to have the funds distributed to the various townships by the last of this week. Deputy Auditor Bales was in Indianapolis Saturday and the settlement sheet was approved by the state officials. The annual settlement with the state requires a large amount of work and is one of the big worries in the auditor's office. The settlement this year is made eight days sooner than the one last year.

The settlement with the state was divided as follows:

State tax	$ 7,366.08
Benevolent institutional fund	9,916.35
State debt sinking fund	1,487.49
State educational institutional fund	6,941.52
State school tax	14,104.28
Vocational educational fund	992.58
School fund interest	2,817.87
Permanent endowment fund	162.00
Total	$43,947.82

The payment of this amount will materially decrease the amount of county deposits in the various banking houses. The fund was drawn on two banks.

DECLARES SHE WAS DAUGHTER

Mrs. Margaret Jane Cathers of Bartholomew County Claims to be Child of Drewery A Massey.

FORMER ORANGE CITIZEN

Asserts he Deserted Her and Mother When a Baby—Massey Never Mentioned Her.

Columbus, Ind., Dec. 13.—Mrs. Margaret Jane Cathers, 80, of near Newbern, has just learned that she is a daughter of Drewery A. Massey, 108 years old, who died in Rush county a few days ago, and that she lived within fifty miles of him for half a century without knowing his whereabouts. Mrs. Cathers asserts her father deserted her and her mother when the former was a baby.

This dispatch from Columbus comes rather strangely after the account the understanding, current counts of the death of Mr. Massey, everywhere in the neighborhood in which the pioneer and more than centenarian lived the greater part of his life. Interviews with people in the Orange neighborhood today failed to shed any certain light upon the claim of Mrs. Cathers. What she alleges is a part, indeed, of what has been lost in the depths of time.

This lady who claims to be the daughter of the deceased Mr. Massey is herself eighty years of age. Mr. Massey was married four times. He was an old man when the oldest people who were his neighbors and friends in Orange first knew him. His extraordinarily length of life carried him down into a generation which knew him simply as a remarkably old man. If some such affair as the Columbus lady alleges did occur in his early life it is unknown here, and the aged Mr. Massey, so far as it is known, never mentioned it. But that a woman eighty years of age should claim to have lived within an hour's ride of her father for more than three-fourths of a century, only to learn of the fact after his demise, arrests the imagination and appeals to the appetite for the wonderful, regardless of the truth of her allegations.

It was known to friends of the late Mr. Massey that he had one daughter, who was thought to live in some far western state. Whether Mrs. Cathers is the daughter referred to is not known here.

ABOUTS 25,000 IN CHRISTMAS CLUB

Deposits in Peoples Loan & Trust
Company's Plan Represent Savings of About 1,000 Persons.

SUM SAVED NEARLY DOUBLE

Big Increase in Club's Membership
Also Shown as Compared With
First Trial Last Year

Approximately twenty-five thousand dollars will be turned into local
trade channels by the Peoples Loan &
Trust company by Wednesday, it
was announced today. This sum represents the savings of about one thousand persons and reveals the value of thrift. The immense fund
that is to be distributed was started
with sums as small as one, two and
five cents a week by the individual
depositors.

The Christmas Savings Club has shown a remarkable growth. Last year was the first here. There were five hundred members who saved approximately fourteen thousand dollars. This year the amount saved

was nearly doubled, displaying a
much wider interest taken in the
club.

The checks which are being mailed members of the club are very artistic in design and are made especially for the club. Accompanying each check will be a very neat
and attractive Christmas letter.

The members of the Christmas
Savings Club of 1915 of the Peoples Loan and Trust Company should feel very much pleased with the results, as they compare favorably with much larger cities, indicating that the spirit of thrift is also
one of the virtues of this.

It is pleasing to note that a fair
portion of these savings are rede-
posited in permanent savings accounts, while the balance is turned
into the regular channels of business, which should make a very noticeable increase in the Christmas
sales of local merchants.

These clubs have become a big
feature in starting whole families
to saving and not only the father
and mother join, but it is so arranged that the little folks can also carry a membership. Church societies and lodges wishing to raise
a definite sum for a definite purpose,
have become members, and have been very successful in using the plan. In some instances whole families have
taken out cards and the regularity of
their savings has enabled all of them
to enjoy some Christmas feature
that has heretofore been out of
their reach.

The Christmas Savings Club for 1916 is now forming. Many new members are now joining. Every member of the family will doubtless be interested.

Amusements

The Gem will show the two reel
feature comedy "Room and Board—
A Dollar and a Half" for the first picture tonight. Billie Ritchie is featured and this alone means a great comedy. It is said to be one of his best efforts and the picture is very funny. The other picture is a powerful western drama entitled
"Lon of Lone Mountain." Lon Cha-uncy is featured. Tomorrow night
the twelfth installments of "The Broken Coin" will be shown. Julia
Dean, the Broadway star, and Harry D. Carey, considered one of the finest character actors on the American or English stage, are featured in the principal roles of
"Judge Not," an inspiring six-act
feature photo-drama, produced by
the Universal Film Mfg. Co., which comes to the Gem theatre on Wednesday.

"Judge Not" was cast into photoplay form by Harvey Gates of the Universal's western scenario staff
from Peter B. Kyne's six-reel story.
Robert Leonard, star and director of
"The Master Key" serial, produced
the picture.

Probably there has never been so powerful a story written as "Should
a Mother Tell" of which Rex Ingram is the author, and which will
be presented tonight at the Princess.

Undoubtedly never has there
been portrayed, either upon the
screen or upon the legitimate stage,
such a delineation of the strength of
motherlove as is given by Betty Nan-
sen. Queen of Emotional Acting.

In her former William Fox suc-
cesses, "A Celebrated Scandal,"
"Anna Karenina," and "A Woman's Resurrection," Miss Nansen has risen to such dramatic heights as to
have placed her far in the van of emotional artistes. But in "Should
a Mother Tell?" William Fox has furnished her with a vehicle that brings out such emotional stress as
to leave the audience spellbound—
almost, stunned.

Miss Nansen has one answer to
the problem, "Should a Mother
Tell?" Many will agree to her solution, many will not. But whether you agree or not, you will remember
this sensational photodrama for a
long, long time.

Able supporting Miss Nansen are Stuart Holmes, Jean Sothorn and an eminent cast of the Fox calibre.

CLOSE GAUD IS KEPT ON REPORTS

Government Sees to it That There Are no Leaks in Census Department—Locked in Room

SCANDAL FEW YEARS AGO
(By United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 13.—Part of the job of six employees of the commerce department is to be locked up, incommunicado, for several hours two or three times a month. They are the men who get out the census reports on cotton, copper and such things.

At 6 a. m. of the day the report is to be issued, the men are locked in a room. When the telegrams from which their report is compiled are handed in to them. They complete the report, and keep it in the locked room until the hour it is to be given out. The room is so constructed that no signal can be given from it.

At the last minute it is taken to the census department and flashed by wire to the public. Then the prisoners are released.

This plan was devised several years ago following scandals in which it was alleged that Wall street speculators "made a cleaning" by obtaining U. S. reports a few minutes early.

INSANITY TO BE DEFENSE
Preacher Goes on Trial Charged With Stealing Auto

(By United Press.)
Crawfordsville, Ind., Dec. 13.—Temporary insanity due to over-study was the defense of Benjamin F. Clifton, former minister of Kingman, when he went on trial charged with stealing an automobile belonging to Thomas Harwood.

Clifton was arrested on the eve of his scheduled marriage with the daughter of a wealthy farmer. His fiancée was prepared to testify in his behalf.

SHIPPING MEN ON TRIAL
Case Involving Neutrality Question Starts at San Francisco

(By United Press.)
San Francisco, Dec. 13.—Sensational developments were deemed possible today when five local shipping men faced trial here, charged with violating American neutrality by supplying German commerce raiders with munitions. The indicted men are Philip Phayre, John Hoyt, R. H. Swain, C. D. Bunker and Joseph Bly. The government attorneys may have as a witness Gustav Kulenkampf, recently a witness in customs violations cases against Homburg-American line officials at New York.

HONOR MEMORY OF S. B. ANTHONY
Monster Pageant Planned For Tonight by Suffragists—Historic Episodes to be Portrayed

SHOWING FIGHT FOR CAUSE
400 Participants in The Ten Scenes And Chorus of 100 Voices Will Sing

(By United Press.)
Washington, Dec. 13.—Susan B. Anthony as she was when a young woman, when in her quaint hoop-skirts and tight protecting shawl she ventured almost alone into the capitol and pleaded with jeering congressmen that women be given the vote, will tread the boards here tonight in the monster pageant to be given by suffragists in honor of her memory.

Hundreds of her followers, representatives of the 4,000,000 women voters of the west and congressmen and senators have reserved seats in the big convention hall. The pageant was obtained by Miss Hazel MacKaye.

There will be 400 participants in 10 historic episodes portraying dramatic moments in the fight of the suffrage pioneer to secure recognition for her cause. Symbolic friezes telling of the growth of the movement will be posed between the episodes, while a chorus of a hundred women will sing.

Mrs. Florence Kays Hanson, professional reader, will impersonate Miss Anthony.

Other prominent suffragists will impersonate their leaders of the past as follows:

Elizabeth Cady Stanton — Mrs. Charlotte Stanley.
Lucretia Mott — Miss Catherine Reynolds McCormick.
Wendell Phillips — James R. Daly.
Mrs. Amelia Bloomer — Mrs. Margaret Hopkins Weirrell.
Daniel Anthony — Howard Treat.
Mrs. Daniel Anthony — Mrs. Ruth Pierson.
Hannah Anthony — Miss Leazera de Grange.
Mary Anthony — Miss Margaret Pierce.

Announcing the First Showing of Eagle "Silkloth" Shirts For Men at $3

As a holiday feature we shall introduce these Shirts, which are here exclusively in this vicinity.

is a new fabric invention, combining fine madras and silk fibre; producing a material which has the luster of silk and yet is as durable as serge. "Silkloth" is woven exclusively for Eagle

Shirts and thus far may be seen only at Mulno's hereabout.

The Shirts are made in plain negligee style, with soft French cuffs attached. The patterns are smart and distinctive stripes in blue, lavender and black on white grounds.

The fact that these Shirts will give a greater degree of service than all-silk Shirts, and that they retain their brilliant lustre, will undoubtedly make them popular.

We shall be glad to have you inspect them.

Pyorrhea—the disease nearly everybody has

No matter how sound your teeth may seem to be, no matter how you may scoff at the idea of your having this disease, it is a positive fact that the germ which causes it is working now in your teeth.

The appalling discovery of this fact—that the germ which causes pyorrhea is one which inhabits every human mouth—was made over a year ago. Since then dentists have been urging everyone to take special precautions in their daily toilet to prevent this disease from developing in its acute form of bleeding gums, tenderness in chewing and loose teeth.

To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address: The Senreco Remedy Co., 505 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

E. V. Bergen Co. Brings Actions For
Failure to Pay Assessments on Second Street Paving.

ALLEGED LIEN ON PROPERTY

Estes V. Bergen and Everett E. Jeffrey, doing business under the name of E. V. Bergen Co., are the plaintiffs in six suits filed in circuit court to foreclose assessments, alleged to be due for the paving of West Second street. The complaints in each suit are the same, the contractors alleging that the assessments are a lien on the property of the persons named because of their failure to pay for the streets.

The parties named and the amounts asked are as follows: Hyman and Hattie Schatz, $114.89; William E. and Clara Wallace, $209.62; Charles Goddard, $300.32; Melvina Shropshire, $139.38; Athalia Lewark and William Lewark, $289.21; George E. and Ella Muire, $161.60. Kiplinger and Smith represent the Bergen Company.

Goldie Holcomb Says Husband Announced he Wouldn't Support Her.

Mrs. Goldie F. Holcomb filed suit for divorce today in circuit court from William Holcomb. She asks the custody of their one child and $4 a week for support money. Mrs. Holcomb alleges that he abandoned her in December, 1913, and published notice to the world that he would not be responsible for the support of his wife. The complaint states that he inserted notices in the newspapers announcing this fact. According to the complaint, they were married in Henry county in December, 1912. Mrs. Holcomb is represented by Thomas M. Green.

Make the Best Remedy at Home—128 Teaspoonful For 50 Cents.

If everything was sold in as liberal and fair a manner as Fox Bros. Drug Store are selling Schiffmann's New Concentrated Epector, absolutely no cause for complaint or dissatisfaction could possibly arise from anyone. These druggists say—"Buy a bottle of this remedy and try it for Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Severe Cough, Croup or any Bronchial Affection, and we will return your money, just as we do with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, if it does not give satisfaction, or if not found the best remedy ever used for any of these complaints." Why not take advantage of this guarantee and try this medicine, and get your money back, rather than buying another purely on the exaggerated claims of its manufacturer or on the strength of testimonials from others and run the chances of getting something worthless and also wasting your money?

In buying this remedy, besides securing an absolute guarantee of its efficiency from these druggists, you also get about eight times as much medicine as you would in buying most any of the old-fashioned, ready-made kinds, which average from 20 to 32 teaspoonful, because 50c worth makes a whole pint (128 teaspoonful) when mixed at home with simply one pint of sugar and one-half pint of water. This remedy positively does not contain chloroform, opium, morphine or any other narcotic. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. You will be the sole judge, and under this positive guarantee absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy. Druggists everywhere are authorized to sell it under the same guarantee as Schiffmann's famous Asthmador of "Money Back" is not perfectly satisfactory. R. J. Schiffmann, Proprietor, St. Paul, Minn.

BLAMES WAR FOR DEFICIT

Postmaster General Burleson Announces Balance on Wrong Side of Ledger of $11,333,308.97.

WAR COST SERVICE $21,000,000

Declares Loss For Year Would Have Been Greater But For Some Reorganization.

Washington, Dec. 13.—In his annual report upon postal administration during the fiscal year 1915, Postmaster General Burleson announces an audited deficit of $11,333,308.97, caused by the European war and large increases of expenditures which were mandatory under law. The cost of the war to the Postal Service is estimated at $21,000,000.

The Postmaster General states that efficiency of service was placed above cost considerations and that, notwithstanding the adverse revenue conditions, steady expansion and improvement of postal facilities have continued. However, he shows that the deficit would have amounted to at least $24,000,000 but for the reorganization of various branches of the service along modern business lines begun before the war started and continued during the disturbed period.

Of the total deficit, Mr. Burleson's analysis demonstrates that all but $309,688.16 was the result of the increases of salaries of postal employees and additional railway mail pay required by law.

Other important announcements include the following:

1. Renewal of former recommendations for a change from the space basis of adjusting railway mail pay.

2. Startling growth of the parcel post, notwithstanding the falling off in other classes of mail, and the adoption of more liberal regulations regarding the limit of size and the insurance privilege.

3. Maintenance of frequent mail service to all foreign countries, including the belligerent countries of Europe, and important improvements of the facilities of postal exchange between the United States and the countries of South and Central America.

4. Rapid expansion and improvement of rural delivery whereby hundreds of thousands of new patrons are being provided service, despite large reduction of the total cost of rural service.

5. Interesting effects of the war in money-order and postal-savings services, including phenomenal growth of the latter.

6. Good results in protecting the public from fraudulent advertising and in enforcing the fraud-order statutes against swindlers who use the mails to promote fraudulent enterprises.

7. A recommendation for bond-

A Lady Told Us

the other day that, because we went to the expense of keeping our store so spotlessly clean, and because we had the reputation of selling such high grade merchandise, she thought that we necessarily had to charge higher prices than other stores. After investigation she found that, not only could she get dependable groceries from us at lower prices, but that she could eat with greater relish because she knew everything from our store was sanitary and clean.

Motor-vehicle service was authorized under the joint resolution extending postal appropriations of 1915 for the fiscal year 1916. In the direction of the Postmaster General and pay of rural carriers who furnish and maintain their own motor vehicles and who serve routes not less than 50 miles in length may be fixed at not exceeding $1,800 a year. Under this provision 671 automobile routes have not been authorized at the date of this report, of which 438 are in operation. The remainder of the authorized motor-vehicle routes will go into operation at varying dates in the near future.

The automobile is being introduced only after recommendation by postmasters or inspectors in localities where road and weather conditions will admit of using motor vehicles at least nine months of the year.

A RUSHVILLE INTERVIEW

Mr. Priest Tells His Experience.

The following brief account of an interview with a Rushville man over five years ago, and its sequel will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Geo. Priest, 223 W. 3d street, Rushville, says: "I have been afflicted more or less with kidney trouble for several years. It came on me gradually and each day, I could notice that it was becoming worse. It started with a dull pain directly over my kidneys, dizzy spells followed and there seemed to be specks before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended for such ailments and I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They proved to be the best medicine of the kind I had ever used. In a short time they freed me from that distressing pain in my back and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

The above statement was given on March 9, 1910, and on Aug. 26, 1915, Mr. Priest said: "Whenever my kidneys bother me, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they always give good results. My former endorsement still holds good."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Priest has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement.)
